1:hydiognimy. R. C. SKINNER, Surgeon Dentist of New York, respectfully informs the citizens of Alexandria, that having concerns that require his continuance near the seat of govern-ment 7 or 8 days, proposes to attend to his professional business in this city until the 18th mat. Those ladies and gentlemen who have unfortunately lost their Front Teeth, have therefore a favorable opportunity of having them replaced in a very superior style, warunted to retain a perfect natural colour, not distinguishable by strict examination from those of the natural growth, and in most cases without the least pain. Those persons likevise whose teeth are partially decayed, or are scrusted with that contaminating, destructhe substance the Tartar, may have the deay arrested and the Tartar judiciously removed, and the teeth thereby preserved during life. Therefore, if a regular apprenticeship, and long study in the city of London, improved by 20 years extensive practice in New fork, and aided by the recommendations of he most exalted characters in that state, can entitle him to confidence, he will be sure to receive, and endeavor justly to merit the pamage he may be honoured with. RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE ABOVE WORK. " We have had frequent occasion to speak of the diligence, good sense, and good intentions, of Mr. Murray; and we congratulate him sincerely on the success of this particular work. We announce this edition, because the alterations and additions are so considerable, that it is rendered almost a new work."

British Cricic, July 1801. "The examples which Mr. Murray has here selected, and the judicious reflections which accompany them, are such as can scarcely fail to make the best impressions, and to produce the best effects, on all who read them with attention. The present edition of this excel lent publication, which has been long k nown and commended, is enlarged by the addition

"On reviewing this book, in its improved form, we find the facts unquestionable and highly interesting-the style correct and neat -and the general tendency of the work such as induces us strongly to recommend it, especially to young readers, who love entertain ment mingled with instruction."

Evangelical Magazine, Oct 1801. "The rapid sale of this small but valuable collection, has anticipated the commendation we are desirous to bestow. In an exemplification of more than seventy remarkable ciraracters, many striking examples are exhibited which, in the quet hour of reflection. man contribute to arrest the careless and wandering; to animate the sincere and virtuous; and to convince or discountenance those who have been unhappily led to oppose the highest truths." THE DAWN. From the " Lay of an Irish Harfi," by Miss

OWENSON.

THERE is a soft and fragrant hour, Sweet, fresh, reviving is its power; 'Tis when a ray Steals from the vale of parting night, And by its mild prolusive light Foretells the cay.

Tis when some lingering stars scarce shed Over the mountain's misty head Their fairy beam ; When one by one, retiring, shrowd, Dim glittering through the fleecy cloud, Their last faint gleam.

'Tis when just wak'd from transient death (By some fiail zephyr's balmy breath) The unfolding rose, Sheds on the air a rich perfume, While every bud with deeper bloom And beauty glows.

'Tis when fond nature (genial power) Weeps o'er each drooping night clos'd flew'r, While softly fly, Those doubtful mists that leave to view Each glowing scene of various hue

'Tis when the sea-girt turret's brow Receives the East's first kindly glow, And the dark wave, Swelling to meet the Orient gleam, Reflects the warmly strengthining beam It seems to have.

That charms the eye.

"Tis when the restless child of sorrow, Watching the wish'd for rising morrow, His couch foregoes, And seeks 'midst scenes so sweet, so mild, To scothe those pangs so keen, so wild, Of hopeless woes.

Nor day, nor night, this hour can claim, Nor moonlight ray, nor noontide beam Does it betray; But, fresh, reviving, downy, sweet, It hastes the glowing hour to meet, Of rising day.

No execution shall issue on any repiery bond, twelve months' sale bond, or loseited forthcoming boad heretofore execated, if the obligors, or their representalives will give like bond and security to the court, or in the clerk's office, willin sixty days after the passage of this act, or before such bond shall be due, or execution awarded thereon.

Sec. 4. Every unsatisfied execution for money, in the hands of any officer, at the commencement of this act may in like manner, be stayed; if bond and security be given before the officer proceeds to sell.

Sec. 5. Bonds taken in pursuance of this acture to have the force of a judgment, and be assignable; and at the expiration of the act, may be proceeded on as 12 months replevy bond.

Sec. 6. Decrees pronounced by a court of chancery for the sale of real or personal estate, may be suspended, and proceedings, by trustees, may be stayed, as directed by the first section; the bond to be given in the name of the creditor to the commissioners or trustees; but this act is not to extend to any lien given to indemnify securities; er to secure the re-payment of any sum paid as a security; or to secure the payment of any money received as attorney, sheriff, sergeant, coroner, constable, guardian, executor, administrator, or committee of an ideot or lunatic, or as receiver under any order of court,

Sec. 7. Obligees may move the court for further security, if they deem the first insufficient or likely to become so, by giving ten days notice to the debtor, if to be found in the county; if not, by advertising one menth at the court-house door; and if new teenrity be awarded, and not given, the bond may be proceeded on, as if this act had exfired. The landlord has the same remedy in relation to his tenant.

Sec. 8. Securities have like remedy in requiring counter security; and, if it be not given, execution may issue for the benefit of the creditor against the debtor; but the security shall nevertheless be bound according to the terms of his bond. Provided that no sale shall be stayed till bond and security be liven. This act only to extend to judgments for money, founded on contracts heretofore entered into, or where the cause of action shall have accrued before the passage of the act; but not to extend to judgments in actions of slander, assault and battery, tres-Pass and actions on the case founded on tort; or to judgments recovered by one seturity against another, or by the security against the principle; or for money received is attorney, sheriff, sergeant, coroner, constable, guardian, executor, administrato, or committee of an ideot and lunatic; or as receiver under an order of court, or to a judgment recovered by the state; or against a theriff or other office; for any delinquincy; or a bank established by law; or the mutual assurance society; or a corporate body a-Gainst delinquent subscribers.

any plaintiff from resorting to his original eccurity, if after the expiration of this act, due diligence be used to recover the money occured by any bond taken in pursuance thereof; nor shall any such bond be regarded as a satisfaction till it be actually paid.

Sec. 10. Original securities may move for counter security, as prescribed by the 8th section; and if it be not given, execution may issue against the debtor and last security; but the original security shall remain bound to the creditor in the terms of his original contract.

Sec. 11. If bond and security be not given, as authorised by this act, till the execution be levied, the sheriff or officer snall be entitled to the same commissions as for tak-ets, and may have the same remedy for their recovery against the defendant as heretofore against the plaintiff in forthcoming bonds. And in such cases the officer shall restore the property on the production of a certificate from the clerk, that bond and security has been given.

Sec. 12. The clerk or other officer shall recover of the defendant in the same manner as other fees, sixty-three cents for each bond taken under this act.

Sec. 13. All costs shall be paid by the detendant, before he shall avail himself of the benefit of this act.

Sec. 14. Where debtors fail to avail themselves of the benefit of this act, by giving bond and security to stay the payment of the debt, the property shall be sold to the highest bidder, and bond and security in double the amount of the debt be taken (unless the purchaser be the creditor) with interest on so much as will satisfy the purchase, payable at the expiration or repeal of this act; which bonds shall be assignable and have the force of a judgment, and may be proceeded on as 12 months replevy bonds.

Sec. 15. Where proceedings shall be delayed on mortgages and deeds of trust, the lien shall not be removed, till the debt be paid; and if the security, in the bond, discharge the debt he shall have the same lien as the original creditor, and be substituted in his place.

Sec. 16. If property sold on credit, to expire with this act, shall sell for more than the debt, bond and security for double the amount of the excess shall be taken, pavable to the debtor; which bond shall have the force of a judgment and be assignable, and proceeded on as 12 months replevy bonds.

Sec. 17. The act of the last session, 'Concerning the sale of property under executions and incumbrances,' is repealed, except so much as was intended to be perpethal.

Sec. 18 & 19. This act to commence drom the passing, and to be in force till the rising of the next General Assembly.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11.

The Vice-Consul of Spain, in Alexandria, has just received from his Consul General the following notice:

" The Chevalier de Foronda, charge d'affaires and Consul General from his Catholic Majesty Ferdinand VIIth to the U. States, informs the Merchants and others whom it may concern, that the Spanish Consuls are authorised to grant to American vessels papers and documents, which are indispensably requisite to obtain admission into the following islands and ports, viz. Puerto Rico, San Tiago de Cuba, Havanna La Guira, Maraycabo and St. Augustine de la Florida."

"By British orders of council, dated October 25th, the ports of St. John, Shelburne and Halifax, are declared open for importations from, and exportations to the United States, in British and American vessels. This order is in pursuance of an act of parliament passed some time since."

The Carolina Federal Republican .- The 6th number of this paper has just come to hand; printed by a Mr. Pastear, but the editor is not known. I cannot however refrain from congratulating the federal party on the accession of such a powerful auxiliary. As an example of the principles by which this editor is animated, & a spemcien of the talents with which his paper is conducted, I select the following article: N. T. Ev. Post.

From the N. Carolina Federal Republican.

We close in this day's paper the speech of Mr. Giles on the embargo, which being Sec. 9. For gress the proclamation of the King of England, calling home his seamen and directing the commanders of his ships to take the measure which had answered many good them when found on board neutral merchant ships; and this was the only assignable ground of the embargo as to England, whatever other pretences may have been disingenuously pressed into the service as inducing the measure. We are glad to find so prominent a member of the democratic phalanx avowing his error. We hope to hear no more soft nonsense about "an asylum for oppressed humanity" at the ex- prish the revenue, demoralize the farmers pence of the rights of other sovereign nations and of our own interests.

Mr. Giles says he is a farmer, and in the name of the fraternity of American farmers, tells us the farmers are now enjoying the fruits of their industry in peace and security-blessed with every political, social and domestic enjoyment, perfectly exempt from all vexations, and almost from taxation. That they are puzzled what to do with their surplus plenty. This stuff is intended manifestly for readers across the Atlantic, Who is so blind as not to have witnessed the incorrectness of his facts; who is so insensible to the sufferings of the farmer as not to feel the keenness of the irony which represents us as " puzzled what to do with our surplus plentv?" The legislature of Virginia, the state which Mr. Giles represents, has set an example which other states have followed, or suspending the collection of debts. Is this an evidence of plenty? Do people need the interposition of laws to stop the course of justice and to impair the obligation of contracts, at a time of plenty? Is not such a measure conclusive evidence of the poverty of the country, of the inability of its citizens to pay their debts? Mr. Randolph says in his speech on the embargo that the situation of Virginia is deplorable-the legislature say the same thing ; but Mr. Giles presumes to say they are happy, exempt from vexations, their only trouble is now to dispose of their "surplus plenty," What are the political advantages the farmers are blessed with, and which he says demand gratitude to the government [meaning the administration]. They are, we presume, a call for a draft of 100,000 militia, a standing army raised in time of peace, a law to raise 50000 men to enforce oppressive laws, a waste of public treasure upon ridiculous gun boats, a depreciation of near half the value of the produce of the industry of the two last years, and an advance of at least 20 per cent. in the price of necessary articles of foreign growth. A tyrannical law, which compels farmers to obtain a licence to send a boat with produce to market, giving bonds for more than most of them are worth, or subject them to expensive, vexatious and ruinous prosecutions; a law which by the demand of heavy bonds from the merchant as ing voyage has nearly destroyed the water to act for me in my absence. intercourse between the states, & finally the prospect of being speedily involved in a war with G. Britain; these are the blessings of the administration which demand our gratitude! The people of America, have the patience of Balaam's Ass, or the measure would have met with general execration,

Mr. Giles tells us the embargo had two Giles' remarks " in the name of the fraterobjects, the first precautionary, operating nity of American farmers," he says the emupon ourselves, the second coercive, operat- burgo has taught them their true interests, ing upon aggressing belligerents. DR. JEBB'S MATURE'S RESTORATIVE,

A BALSANIC CORDIAL. THIS cordial, so justly celebrated throughout Great Britain and the continent of Europe, for its superior efficacy in the cure of all disorders excited by nervous irritability, as well as in complaints of complete debility, whether arising from irregularities of living, long continued residence in warm climates, intemperate pursuits of excessive pleasures, or that destructive habit of inconsiderate youth which brings on so prematurely the infirmities of old age.

In removing pulmonary affections, asthmas, and all disorders of the lungs, it is the most powerful remedy ever yet found, and the relief it has afforded even in the last stage of consumptions, is without a parallel; with regard to its efficacy in this baneful, and unfortunately the prevailing disorder in this country (consumption) its superiority is such as to have supplanted every other medicine.

Those who in advanced life feel the consequences of youthful excess, will find themselves restored to health and strength, and ail those melancholy symptoms removed, which are the general effects of such causes.

In short, animated by the uniform success this invaluable cordial has experienced in Europe, the thousands it has renovated, when bending under the pressure of nervous, consumptive or hypochondriacal disorders (many attested proofs of which from eminently distinguished persons in this quarter of the globe, are now in the possession of the proprietor here, some few of which are herein published) have determined the introduction of it into this continent, where its efficacies must soon become so prized as to make it considered a beneficent remedy not to be dispensed with by those who are anxious to preserve or acquire their health.

The chief ingredient of this cordial is a plant whose rare and precious salutary virtues were well known to the Arabians during the 8th and 9th centuries, when that people shone conspicuous over all the nations of the world for their learning and skill in eradicating baneful diseases incident to the human frame, renovating infirmity to vigor, and restoring the sickly to sound and rosy health, and which is known at this time by their descendants, and used and experienced as the most sovereign remedy for decayed constitutions, and every species of nervous disorder This celebrated restorative plant has also been highly estimated for ages past, amongst the most enlightened nations of Greece, and considered by those wise inhabitants as one of the first of their b'essings.

This cordial is also rich and fine in flavor, most grateful to the palate, and the most enlivening to the spirits of any yet offered to the public.

Dr. Tiffot's celebrated Gout and Rheumatic Drops.

(Price, Two Dollars per bottle.)

NOTHING is of more importance than the preservation of health—this common lacep remark however is too often forgotten. whilst we are active and strong-and pre vention of pain, which is superior to its cure, is not sufficiently attended to by any descripti on of persons. Among those disorders which require the most early and unremitting efforts to eradicate and overcome, none have a strong er claim upon our notice than the Gout, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Weakness of the Joints, Sprains, Gleets, the Stone and Gravel, the Cramp and every species of Rheumatic Pains from whatever cause they may have originated-and hence every relief which can be administered is too valuable to be forgotten .--

Those persons whose avocations peculiarly expose them to colds, &c. cannot be too anxious Iways to possess immediate aid. Sea-faring persons, travellers, &c. ought constantly to carry with them that medicine which will counteract the unpleasans effects of their perilous duties, and especially those pains to which their situation must expose them. To those who reside in or visit the West-Indies, and ther warm climates, they will be found upon trial to convey the most lasting service and will gradually destroy all tendency to disease in the human frame, and preserve health and vigor. Although a great variety of prescriptions have been published to cure the disorders enumerated above, none has yet equalled the GOUT AND RHEUMATIC DROPS of Dr. TISSOT, which are celebrated throughout the European continent, and whose unbounded benefits are fully authenticated by certificates already published of gentlemen so well known in America, being of the first consequence in the state of Maryland? General cubbin, his wife; and Mrs. Ryan, of Calton-Ample certificates and affidavits of the beneficial effects of these medicines may be seen
